GREENEVILLE

St. Mary's School Interests-Deaths John A. Hurd and Miss Elizabeth Healey-Funeral of William H.

For the past week the children of St. Mary's parochial school have been engaged in selling tickets on various articles, the proceeds from which are articles, the proceeds from which are to be used in purchasing a new carpet for the sanctuary. Their efforts met with much success, and the awards were made Friday afternoon as follows: $5 gold piece, Miss Melanie Brunelle; ton of coal, William Walsh; picture of Rev. J. J. Smith, Mrs. Dennis Bowen; $2.50 gold piece, Miss M. Driscoll; doll, Mrs. Rosanna Fuller. The pupils of Room 6 of the school won the prize for selling the largest number of tickets.

Rev. William A. Keefe, principal of the school, on Friday distributed Red Cross stamps to each of the pupils and teachers, speaking of the importance of the fight against consumption. The awards for the essays by the school children on Taberculosis following the recent lecture by Dr. E. J. Brophy, are to be made during the coming week, and as all of the papers are very good, the judges will have difficulty in deciding on the best.

OBITUARY.

John Albert Hurd. John Albert Hurd.

John Albert Hurd died Friday morning at his home, No. 182 Central avenue, where he resided with Mr. and Mrs. Theron E. Tefft. He had been ill for some time, but had been able to work until quite recently. Death was due to a peculiar aliment, stated to be Potts' disease of the spine, during the duration of which, about a year, his spinal column gradually wasted away. He had been treated at the Backus hospital, at one time, but nothing could stay the course of the disease, which started, it is thought, from the kick of a horse some years ago.

ago. Mr. Hurd was born in Essex. Conn. for and in early life was a seaman. His residence in Norwich covered a period of 15 years and for three years he was sexton of the Second Congregationa church. He was an efficient workman church. He was an efficient workman, of good reputation and was generally liked. He is survived by one brother. Frank Hurd of Providence, and one sister, Mrs. James Kane of New London. He had been a 32d degree Mason and a member of Pyramid temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of Bridgeport. He had also belonged to the Knights of Pythias and the Odd Fellows.

Miss Elizabeth Healey. (Contributed.)

On December 15th, the anniversary of her birth, God was pleased to call to himself his faithful servant, Elizto himself his faithful servant, Elizabeth Healey. After long and patient sufferings of ten months and a serious illness of but a week, she went to sleep Tuesday night and awoke Wednesday in the presence of her Savlour. Elizabeth Healey was born in Killarney, County Kerry, Ireland, a member of a splendid and distinguished Irish family, the daughter of John and Mary Healey, both now deceased. She was one of ten brothers and sisters, all of whom aer now dead with the exception of Mrs. Nora Doherty of Chicago, Ill. Bishop Egan, the noted Irish

CAMPFIRE OF SEDGWICK POST

Given in Honor of Visit of Department Officers-Dept. Commander Havens, Mayor Lippitt, Messrs. Starr, Nolan and Chandler Spoke-Banquet, Music and Presentation of Badges.

Sedgwick post's last campfire of this year was held on Friday evening at the Buckingham Memorial, with Department Commander Havens from New London, Alde Lafayette W. Starr and Chief Mustering Officer Wilbur of the department staff as the special guests. The women of Sedgwick Relief corps and members of the Citizens' corps, including Mayor Lippitt, were also guests by special invitation and the hours from 7 to 8.30 were spent in a way that everyone present enjoyed. While the veterans and their guests were assembling Bullard's orchestra played and also gave an excellent programme during the supper hour with which the campfire began.

A fine escalloped oyster supper was served and a to 'ciock under the direction of Quartermaster Sergeant Stocking, who had the tables set in both the post hall and the post room, which were prettily decorated in silk American flags. About 150 were served and antieved the provision that Mr. Stock. ment Commander Havens from New London, Alde Lafayette W. A fine escalloped oyster supper was served at 7 o'clock under the direction of Quartermaster Sergeant Stocking, who had the tables set in both the post hall and the post room, which were prettily decorated in silk American flags. About 150 were served and enjoyed the provision that Mr. Stocking had made for the satisfaction of the inner man.

When supper was over Commander Vine S. Stetson presided as toast-master, welcoming the department offi-cers, the Relief corps members, the Citizens' corps and the mayor, and in-cers, the Relief corps members, the Citizens' corps and the mayor, and introducing Department Commander Havens as the first speaker.

He responded in a pleasing vein, referring to the inspiration attaching to a meeting in the former home of Connecticut's war governor and to a meeting with General Sedgwick on the field of war, when he heard this beloved commander of the Sixth army corps called "Uncle Billy" by a soldier in the general's commander George S. Smith, a member of Sedgwick post, had had in reviving the New London post when it had died out about thirty years ago. In his travels around the state he said that it was constantly brought home to him how beloved had been the late patriotic instructor, Nathan L. Bishop, and he said that every flag floating above a schoolhouse and every flag drill seemed a reminder of Mr. Bishop's work. Commander Havens also told of the great growth

Aide de Camp Starr followed with remarks that were greatly appreciated, and John Nolan, one of the members of W. W. Perkins post of New London, was also heard in some brief remarks, in which he showed that he championed the cause of "votes for women," and he raised a laugh of appreciation when he said that he was proud of having had a part in making a country that doesn't go around with any chip on its shoulder, but is right there.

"Annie Laurie" by the Temple quartette was finely rendered, with a humming accompaniment for the solo parts and they had to respond to an encore. Past Commander James Harvey was loudly applauded for his recitation. The Green Flag at Spottsylvania.

Chaplain A. J. Chandler of the New London post responded to the call for a speech and interested his hearers with his patriotic utterances. He extolled the record of the late Gen. Oliver Otts Howard, the Christian Soldier, and gave quite a sketch of his life.

The singing of America closed the campfire, which was one of the best of the season.

Personal Mention About the Village-Funeral of Annie B. Heibel-Christ-

The funeral of Miss Annie Barbara Heibel was held from the home of her parents, George and Margaret Seidel Heibel, in Lisbon, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Theodor Bauck, pastor of the German Lutheran church, conducted the services and spoke comforting words to the sorrowing relatives and friends. Members of the Maennerchor sang Still Rests Thy Heart and Good Night at the house. The bearers were Henry Troeger. Christian Hoefer, Gustave Kampff and Max Heinrich. Among the beautiful flowers were forms from Miss Heibel's fellow employes in the Ponemah mills, Mrs. John Wheeler of Lisbon, Andrew Heibel and family, John and George Seidel and Mr, and Mrs. John Heibel of Greeneville. Burial was in the Ames cemetery in Lisbon, where a committal service was read by Rev. Mr. Bauck and the Maennerchor sang. Undertaker Grant had charge of the arrangements.

Relatives were present from Paw-tucket and Quidnic, R. I., Baitle and Greeneville.

The Lee & Osgood Co. Has an Invigorator that Makes Hair Grow In Abundantly or Money Back.

It won't be long before the bald spot appears.

The time to take care of the hair is when you have hair to take care of. For thin falling hair the best remedy known to mankind is Parisian Sage. It is compounded on scientific principles and furnishes to the hair root a neurishment that acts quickly and promptly and causes the hair to grow.

But remember this: It kills the dandruff germ, the pest that appropriates all the natural neurishment that should go to the hair root.

Parisian Sage is sold by The Lee & Osgood Co., under a positive guarantee to banish dandruff, stop failing hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back. On Wednesday evening there was a lively blaze in a closet in the house occupied by Harold Sampson at 117 Baltic street. It was a good sized fire, but it was put out without calling out the department.

HURD—In Norwich, Dec. 17, 1969, John A. Hurd, aged 51 years. Funeral services will be held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Theron E. Tefft. 182 Central avenue, Monday morning, Dec. 29, at 19,39. Burial in Jordan cemetery, Waterford, Conn. Please omit flowers. It gives to women's hair a lustre and radiance that is most fascinating and causes it to grow abundantly.

Paristan Sage is now sold in every first-class town in America by leading druggists. A large generous bottle costs 50 cents, and the girl with Auburn hair is on every package. "My daughter at Butternut, Mich., used Parisian Sage, and says it makes new hair grow in, and is far ahead of anything she ever used. Our fifteen year old son lost nearly all his hair after a sickness, and the use of Parisian Sage made it again grow in. We prulse and endorse the use of Parisian Sage. It is fine."—Mrs. H. H.
